PASTORS RETREAT

Coming up November 7-9 is the annual Mountain States Mennonite Conference Pastors Retreat at RMMC. It's a time for pastors to gather and fellowship together. This year's worship times led by Annie Lengacher Browning and Herm Weaver will be on the topic "Exploring What We Do and What We Dream." Merv Birky, pastor at Beth-El Mennonite Church shares his thoughts about the retreat, "This retreat is an essential for Venita and I. We cherish the opportunity to connect with other pastors (and spouses). We are stimulated by the conversations and input. And, especially important for us: we are nourished by our times of worship together. We will do everything in our power to be there!"

COLORADO QUILT TRAIL

RMMC recently became part of the Colorado-Midland Quilt Trail which features businesses in Colorado Springs, Old Colorado City, Woodland Park, Divide, Cripple Creek and Victor. Each quilt square has historic, meaningful or personal significance to the location. The quilt square was donated and painted by Angela Nofziger and Elizabeth Nijkamp (pictured), both faithful attenders to RMMC's multiple quilt retreats. The pattern selected for RMMC is appropriately entitled "Evergreen" representing the green of the trees and blue of the sky. The quilt block welcomes guests as it hangs outside the main office entrance. To see the Colorado-Midland Quilt Trail brochure, please visit our quilter's retreat page at www.rmmc.org/mennonite-quilters-retreat.

PLEIADES PROJECT UPDATE

The Vision 2020 building project (a new Pleiades/Infirmary building) is now well underway. The first floor exterior and load bearing walls are in place and sheathed. Volunteers are currently placing the second floor exterior walls. The goal is to place the rafters and roof before the snow falls (soon!). Have a day you can help? Come! All hands are needed to make this project happen.

YOU'VE BEEN SPOTTED!

We spotted the Miller family all wearing their RMMC shirts. Marvin and Vi Miller, grandparents, have been long time volunteers and former summer staff (Vi) at RMMC. Their daughters, Rachel Stutzman and Sharon Blough, also served on summer staff. Now the third generation of children have begun to make their own memories at RMMC as summer campers. Thanks, Millers, Bloughs, and Stutzmans, for staying connected to RMMC and passing along your love for camp! Share your "spotted" photo with us. Email it to jenelle@rmmc.org
