CAMP FINISHED YEAR STRONG

The end of 2014 was very busy at RMMC between guests staying in the ridge cabins and those enjoying time at main camp. On Saturday, December 27, RMMC hosted a wedding in the Chapel and a reception in the Zurich Dinging Hall. The freshly fallen snow was a beautiful backdrop for the young couple and their 60 friends and family. On Sunday, December 28, a group of 69 Orthodox Christian youth and leaders gathered for two nights at camp to worship and play together. Their group (pictured) is comprised of various churches along the Front Range and has been coming to camp for the past 15 winters. It's fun to see that Mennonites are not the only ones who enjoy broomball!

MEN'S RETREAT 2015

Coming up February 27 to March 1, 2015, Mountain States Mennonite Conference's annual Men's Retreat will be held at RMMC with John Paul Lederach speaking on "Cultivating Courage." Through stories, songs, and sharing, the retreat will take a look at practical ways to transform conflict with family, church, community, and business colleagues and will also explore the biblical basis of transforming conflict. In addition to the worship times there will be plenty of time to play (especially for human curling, pictured from last year's retreat) and enjoy time outdoors. To register, call RMMC (719-687-9506) or complete the PDF registration form online at www.rmmc.org/mens-retreat.

YOU'VE BEEN SPOTTED!

We spotted Mariah Martin's (Glenwood Springs, CO) RMMC water bottle sitting on a rock in Peru. Mariah, a former summer staffer and longtime camper, was on a semester abroad with Goshen College in Peru. Thanks, Mariah, for sharing RMMC with Peru! Share your "spotted" photo with us. Email it to jenelle@rmmc.org
