TIME OFF

Personal time is strongly encouraged as the schedule allows for personal health, especially between camps. Vacation time or additional days off (for family events, weddings, etc.) must be arranged before arriving at Camp for Staff Orientation. Additional days off during the summer must be requested in writing two weeks in advance of the requested day and will be reviewed on a case by case basis.

STAFF APPEARANCES

As it relates to expectations of dress, tattoos and piercings of our staff, Rocky Mountain wishes to place emphasis on the camp community and individual character rather than on appearances that can be distracting. Our sensitivity and responsibility as role models to the community (campers, guests, volunteers and staff of all ages) will guide decisions about appearances, asking staff and volunteers to be understanding in fulfilling these camp ministry goals.

VOLUNTEER POSITIONS

Persons interested in coming for shorter amounts of time (typically two weeks or less) are encouraged to apply as volunteers. Free housing, food and health insurance coverage (up to $5,000 for those without primary insurance) is offered for those unable to make longer term commitments.
